

Saturday night and will go to church here in Perryton in the morning. Thanks to those who are covering my class and sermon.

I pulled into an empty lot in front of a closed building on the edge of town and walked over to a propane company to talk about some repair options. The owner started taking me around to places he thought might have the part, but we had no success.

While riding with him, I asked about his background, he is about 65 and lived here all his life. During the search, he was really anxious, wanting to help. I was calm, thankful I was in town and not on the side of the road. I was glad it is an easy repair, if I can find the part. After a while he said, "You are a Christian aren't you." I said I was and asked what made him ask.

"Anyone else would be cussing and fuming, but you are just taking it in stride. I laughed, thanked him and we talked a bit about God before he dropped me off to work on my coach.

I am glad I was singing the new song and not an old one!

Grace and peace,

Carl

Best laid plans, or something like that. I drove to Janet's brother Kip's new place in New Deal, TX. I was to participate in a "Man Blessing" for Janet's nephew who is about to begin college. Six of the most influential men in his spiritual life were invited to have dinner with him and to give him some counsel for the future. It was meaningful and he was pleased by it. I then planned to work on some electrical things on the motorcoach with her brother Jim. I left about 10a on Saturday to return home.

At least I planned to return home. I was just outside Perryton, TX when the intercooler boot ruptured. Basically, that means I am stuck for
