Sparrows at Discount Prices

Welcome to Worship!

We're glad you're here. Bible classes begin at 10:00. For kids, Pete & Penelope, our children's puppet program, is followed by songs and classes.

Join us this fall as we dig into the fascinating book of Revelation. Perhaps no other book of the Bible has been as abused at Revelation. Come learn how a better understanding of "apocalyptic literature" can open doors of insight into the last book of the Bible. Class begins at 10:00 A.M. with worship following at 11:00 A.M.

If you are unable to be with us in person, our worship is shared through our website:

Do you ever feel like no one cares about you? Perhaps you are tempted to think, if you dropped off the face of the earth, no one would notice. These feelings of worthlessness can be so depressing but if you are tempted to think that way, imagine the plight of the poor sparrow!

Visiting the Quivira Wildlife Refuge, Jan and I love to watch the birds. Pelicans who would seem more at home on the coast than in Kansas gracefully fly by in formation. Ducks of all varieties float on the water, along with geese and an endless variety of waterfowl. Catching the wind, a pair of awesome hawks soar by. We thrill to the variety of finches of every color that feed there. With all that endless variety and magnificence, we hardly even notice the tiny, common house sparrows that chirp and hop around us.

It was the same way in biblical times. Over 400 species of birds inhabit Palestine, and forty of them are mentioned in the Bible. Eagles, owls, vultures, doves, quail, seagulls, swan, even ostriches catch our attention, but the poor sparrow is hardly noticed. In those days, the little sparrow was considered a poor man's food.

They sold them two for a penny (Matthew 10:29). However, if you read the parallel account in Luke, the “Beloved Physician” points out sparrows were so common they were sold at a discount. In Matthew, you could buy two for a penny, but in Luke, you could buy five for just a penny more (Luke 12:6)!

So, do you ever feel like your life, like that of the little sparrow, could be sold away at discounted prices? Then listen to Jesus:

“Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows” (Matthew 10:29-31).

Don't despair. If God loves sparrows, surely, He loves you more!
