

Yes, but on the other, other hand, in talking with ministers across the country, it seems like people have gotten use to staying home from church and they aren't coming back.

Perhaps she was right to be worried about 2022. However, Christians stand on "Faith, Hope, and Love." If Christ is for us, what have we to fear? I can hardly wait to see what the Lord has planned for the coming year.

Meanwhile, I want to encourage everyone to become a daily Bible reader. I've been promoting a wonderful reading schedule. (Click on the link below to download the whole year's program.) To show you how easy it is, here are the four pages to read tomorrow, January 1st, 2022:

Saturday, January 1

Genesis 1; Ezra 1; Matthew 1; Acts 1

Sunday, January 2

Genesis 2; Ezra 2; Matthew 2; Acts 2

Monday, January 3

Genesis 3; Ezra 3; Matthew 3; Acts 3

- No Potluck Today!
Our monthly potlucks will resume in February. Make plans to join us after services February 6th.

We have a number of members who would like to be here with us, but, because of health and age are confined at home. They are not forgotten! Let's remember to pray for:

- Gail Byer
- Don Hornbaker
- Garland and Dena Mansel
- Don Rugan
