Barnabas “Son of Encouragement”

I hope you've taken time this week to consider Barnabas and his commitment to being an encourager. Reflecting on how he encouraged Mark by investing time in him, provided opportunities for him to serve alongside and helped him triumph over failures and disappointments.

Your investment in others makes a difference!

The opportunities you extend to others makes a difference!

Restoring lost confidence makes a difference!

Let's never cease loving a person and never give up hope for him. For even the prodigal son who had fallen most low could still be saved.
