From The Elders at the St John Church of Christ

Hans Christian Anderson was the only child of a poor shoemaker who rose from poverty to the top of European society through talent and tenacity. His enduring contribution to the world of literature was fairy tales. His own life was anything but a fairy tale and included plenty of heartache and trouble.

Though he affirmed, "Life itself is a wonderful poetic tale. An invisible and loving hand directs the whole of it. It was not blind chance which helped me on my way, but that of an invisible and fatherly heart that beat for me. The history of my life will say to the world what it says to me – There is a loving God who directs all things for the best." That is not a fairy tale! It is a timeless truth for us all that try to follow God's direction.(Romans 8:28) "We know that in everything, God works for the good of those who love Him."
