From The Elders at the St John Church of Christ

When we have a sense of obligation to God, so many virtues naturally follow. We strive to make good choices, even when we are alone, because we know that we are, in reality, never alone. We count our blessings because we know where those blessings come from. Also we find ways to help others because we know that is what God would want us to do.

Obligation to God and family provides a solid foundation for honoring our country. We cherish her virtues while seeking to improve her weaknesses. We stand up for what is true and just and treat our fellow citizens with respect, fairness, and compassion. Our obligation to these simple duties and joy will make us, if not a long life, certainly a good and virtuous one. (God, family, country) Up with God! Down with His enemies! Adversaries, run for the hills!! When the righteous see God in action they'll laugh and sing.

Praise God! Cheer when you see Him! He is Great!
