From The Elders at the St John Church of Christ

Imagine what could happen if instead of harboring resentment, we reached out, in some kind way, to someone who we feel has offended us. The best way to defeat an enemy is in seeking to make the enemy our friend. In doing that, we might begin to build a new wonderful relationship.

We can not control how others will respond to our outreach of kindness, though the very effort – no matter how people receive it – helps to make the world a bit kinder, a bit more understanding, a bit sweeter.

Our compassion reduces the anxiety around us and brings peace and unity into our conversations. What a wonderful way to spend the life and time God has so graciously given us.

Tomorrow is the 4th of July! As we celebrate our independence and freedom, we must also remember to thank God for that freedom and to pray to Him for protection for all of the men and women who serve our country to protect those freedoms now, but also for those who have not only served but have given their lives for our country's freedom and all of us who are blessed to live in this country without fear of worshipping God.

God Bless you all, and may you feel His presence throughout your daily walk in life.
