From The Elders at the St John Church of Christ

Studies have found that feeling indebted to God and acknowledging what He has done for us leads to increased overall happiness and well being. The debt we owe to God is one we can never repay, yet those who recognize that debt feel closer to Him, not intimidated by Him. They are also more likely to reach out to others in acts of service and kindness. They seem uplifted and inspired by their debt to the Giver of all good gifts. Remember all good things from God. Count your blessings. WOW!!! WHAT AN AWESOME GOD!!!

Have a blessed week! It would be good if we all could take the time this week to ponder on our personal debt we owe and can never repay. We have truly been blessed!!
