From The Elders at the St John Church of Christ

Truth is important - it does not change. Our ability to find Truth varies according to our connection to God – the source of all Truth. That's why daily spiritual habits are so important. If we take time each day to connect with God through prayer and pondering His word in purposeful study, we can more readily respond to life's difficulties with faith and clarity. This is something we can give our children.

Teach them that there are absolute Truths and they come from God. He is the source of all Truth and man can't change it. People can make laws that are contrary to God's Truths and live contrary to God's Truth but it is not Truth. It is contrary to God's Truths and laws. That makes it sin. Have a great week ahead and take time to ponder on God and His teachings – also hopefully you will be able to enjoy His Creation. It is beautiful and awesome! ENJOY!!
