From The Elders at the St John Church of Christ

The greatest threat to liberty is lawlessness, while the greatest assurance of liberty is respect for the law. We are too inclined to think of law as something restrictive, the opposite of liberty – that is a false conception. God does not contradict Himself. He did not create us and then as an afterthought, impose upon us a set of arbitrary restrictive rules. He made us free, and then gave us the Ten Commandments, most of which are repeated in the New Testament, to keep us free. His absolute rights and wrongs are for our own good and happiness. They are not to keep us from having fun. Most, if not all of the things people do that are against God's rules lead to unhappiness and can even ruin our lives and others lives. Be careful in your life, don't try to walk on the edge.”Walk in the Light.” Don't do things or go places you wouldn't take Jesus, after all, He is with you. Try to make God smile today and take time to talk to Him. May you have a blessed week and remember those that are on our prayer list. There are quite a few. Enjoy God's creation as you walk in His light.
