From The Elders at the St John Church of Christ

We do not know the date of Christ's birth but the world counts it as December 25th so we celebrate Christmas on December 25th and that is today. We do know that without the birth and death of Jesus Christ we have no hope of eternal life with God. We know the story of His birth and part of His life. We know the story of His trials and His beating, His crucifixion, and His death. We know the story of His life on earth after His resurrection (life after death) and the proof of His being alive, eating, walking through a door, and Thomas sticking his finger in the holes in His hands and side. We know the story of His talking to people and His ascension back to Heaven to His Father God. Wow! That is a story of God's love for us and proof of God's power and an example of what God can do. God can bless us more than we can imagine to ask for. Love God. Worship God. Follow God's commandments. Tell others about God and Christ and what they have done for you. EVERY DAY!!!! Bless you all throughout this holiday season. We pray you enjoy family time and can focus on the reason for the season. - The Elders
