From The Elders at the St John Church of Christ

While doing some reading on the internet the other day I found this little “article” and thought it was unique and thought it would be good to share with all of you. The title of it is “Grandpa Tom Harper's Creed”.

I will begin each day with a prayer. I will treat my body as a Temple of God. I will appreciate and enjoy life's blessings. I will live by faith, not fear. I will laugh every day. I will think the best of others. I will practice the “Golden Rule”. I will bring happiness to some poor unfortunate person. I will return good for evil. I will harbor no resentments. I will meet situations as they come. I will leave the future to God.

Down below this reading, there were the words “Love Thy Neighbor”.

Also reading Philippians 4:4-8 is a wonderful scripture to read on a regular basis to help keep your mind focused on some of the things God teaches us to be mindful of.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice! Let your gentle spirit be known to all men. The Lord is near. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, dwell on these things.

Have a super week ahead. May you feel God's presence in your lives, and don't forget, REJOICE IN THE LORD ALWAYS!!!!!! - The Elders
