From The Elders at the St John Church of Christ

While you are reading the old testament take note of how often God told His people to do things EXACTLY how He told them. God is the only one that can decide absolute rights and wrongs. If He says it is right then it is right. If He says it is wrong then it is wrong. If He tells us how to do something, then it is wrong to do it differently. That would be like us saying "I know better than you, God." God did not give us rules to keep us from having fun or using our imaginations. He gave us rules to keep us pure and holy, to protect us from evil. Evil ALWAYS leads to unhappiness and hurt- long term. It might give us temporary happiness but it will not last and will hurt someone. A large percentage of college age youth do not think there are absolute rights and wrongs. Where does that put God? What does that say about our accepting His authority or not accepting it. It also means many of those that do not accept His authority go down the wrong road and will enter the wrong gate in the end. It is time, as a nation, we wake up and put God back in our lives. This does not mean we won't make mistakes, we all do, but we must try to walk in step with the Spirit, do not grieve Him. He loves you and lives in your heart. Have a blessed week. May you feel God's loving arms around you as you go through hard times and good times. Pay attention -- Look around -- He is with you. - The Elders
