For The Church

Shepherd and spouse Biography: Terry & Joy Sallee

The full autobiography can be found on our website at www.stjohnchurchofchrist.org

Terry was born in 1943 and grew up in Stafford County, Kansas. He attended country school and eventually went to Sterling and graduated in 1961. Terry attended the Bethel and Stafford Churches of Christ and was baptized in 1955. Terry, as an adult, was able to baptize his mother into Christ which is a huge highlight of his life. Terry went on to attend Fort Hays University and eventually graduated with a master's degree in organic chemistry in 1966. Joy was born in 1948. She grew up on the farm where her and Terry now live west of St. John. Joy only went to church a couple times each year growing up. She did attend VBS in the summers when she was in grade school. Terry and Joy were married in 1967 and moved to Denver for Terry to start working for Shell Chemical company. Joy was baptized the day after their wedding. They did not stay in Denver long before Terry got a direct commission to go work for the Navy in Bethesda, Maryland. He spent his time studying the effects of decompression sickness.

Terry and Joy struggled to attend church while they lived in Maryland, but they always kept studying God's word at the top of their priority list. Joy worked as a bookkeeper during their time in Maryland. While they were in Maryland, Terry and Joy started raising golden retrievers which became a passion of theirs. When Terry left the Navy, he worked for chemical companies in Denver and St. Joseph's before deciding to move back to help Joy's dad on the family farm west of St. John. Terry and Joy have two kids, Tammy and Joe, who both attend at the Garden City Church of Christ where Tammy's husband, Joe Meador, was recently installed as an elder. Terry has taught just about every class available at the St. John Church of Christ from the littles up to the adults and Joy spent some time teaching Bible classes as well. Terry was appointed as a deacon here in the mid 1970's and a few years later he became an elder. Terry and Joy say that God has been so vivid to them, and they are appreciative of the blessings that God has bestowed on them.
