For The Church

This past Sunday and today, Zeb’s lessons have been focused on trusting God. Our new memory verse beginning this year is Proverbs 3:5-6 “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths”. We can only trust to the measure we believe that something or someone is trustworthy. Can you trust your car to get you to the destination safely? Can you trust your doctor to have the correct diagnosis? If we look at the definition of the word trust in the verse above, it means to be confident, secure, to rely on and to hope in.

What can help us trust in God?

- What I find is most helpful is to get to know God with daily Bible reading and prayer. When I understand his character and how he delivers what he promises, it allows me to know how trustworthy God is. Spend time with God.
- Follow God’s wisdom. The world around us offers so much advice and can influence our thinking. If I follow what God wants, even when it doesn’t make sense, His wisdom is best. His way is the only way to the life he promised us.
- Give your worries to God. In 1 Peter 5:7 we are told to cast all our anxieties on God because he CARES for you. What an incredible promise that I think is a great way to actively trust in God.
- Wait on God. It sometimes is hard to be patient but God listens and understands our needs. Isaiah 40:31 says, “But they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.
