For The Church

I am a sinner. Sin separates us from God. I have a sin debt that I cannot pay, and I hope you realize that you are a sinner and have a debt that you cannot pay. Jesus is the only one that has lived or will ever live that has not sinned except for those too young to know right from wrong. We all have sinned and are still sinning. We can sin by action, word, thought, even by not doing something we know we should do. Maybe this doesn't catch you, but it does me. God knew this was going to happen when He created Adam and Eve. He knew that it was going to cost him His only begotten Son, who was the only perfect blood sacrifice to redeem us.

Do you love people enough to let one of your children die for my sins? Probably not. I think I could die for you but, tears are running down my face even as I write about sacrificing one of my children for your sins. We do not deserve what God did for us, or even what He does for us now in every day of our lives. Thank you, God!! We love you for what you have done and are still doing for us. You are a mighty and awesome God!

Sanctification, salvation, grace, mercy, and all the SPIRITUAL blessings are in Christ.

We should all be in Christ. Read Romans 6:5-11 about being baptized into Christ.

God stands ready with open arms to accept you as His child. WOW!!!!
