For The Church

Happy New Year! With a new year always comes questions about how you are going to better yourself this year. The problem with resolutions is that most people are not resolute – they simply are not resolved to improve the area of their life that they are attempting to improve. They think that improvement is a good idea, but the work that comes with it is not desirable, so they give up early and move on to something else.

Christians should want to be resolute in being disciples of Jesus. What I mean by disciples is that disciples of Jesus want to be like Jesus in every way – not just some ways, but in every way. Jesus wants His Church (all believers) to be unified in Him. In order to be unified in Him we must be like Him and in order to be like Him we must work and be resolute to be like Him.

We must practice the Way of Jesus by incorporating rhythms into our life that will help us become more like Jesus. These practices take discipline and hard work. These practices include, but are not limited to, prayer, Scripture reading, meditation, silence, solitude, and many more. We will explore many of these practices this year to help each of us find something that we can instill as a rhythm in our lives to help us become more like Jesus.

We will begin our journey into the rhythms of disciples by praising Jesus. You should take time each day to just praise Jesus for who he is and what he has done and is doing for you and your family. Jesus' death on the cross is the most important thing that has happened, but Jesus is also helping you each day. Spend time each day praising your Lord and Savior!
